Last Of 11 Escapes From Sonoma State Home Is Captured

ELDRIDGE (Sonoma Co.), Sept. 11.—(UP)—The last of 11 youths who escaped Sunday night from the Sonoma State Home is back in custody today.

Stanley Barksdale, 17, was captured by two guards on a telephone tip from a farm house 12 miles east of Santa Rosa where the youth begged for food.

The boys, described as "dangerous young criminals," slugged two guards, seized their keys and escaped over a 14 foot high fence.
